WILDERNESS AND INTERNATIONAL MEDICINE HAITI (WIMH)

25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits — April 17-23, 2016

Haiti Travel & Cultural Adventure CME Program

Trip includes:

25 AMA PRA 1 Credits:
3 presenters, workshops held at cultural sites

Elegant, historic accomodations:
classic hotel with spacious, air conditioned rooms and private bath, service gratuities, internet, 2 bars, tranquil gardens and pool

All meals

Transportation

Guides & entrance to historic sites

Horse & boat rentals

University student reception

MSM hat & souvenir ID badge

Medical expense & evacuation insurance with Global Rescue™
(a $225 value)

Trip Cost:

Single occupancy:
$3,290 - tax deductible*

Double occupancy:
$2,750 - tax deductible*

25 hours of CME:
$750 - tax deductible*

Not included:

Airfare to/from Cape Haitien (CAP)

$10 US Visa entry fee (cash only)

Join us for an incredible, unforgettable adventure!

Experience Haiti's scenic beauty, vibrant culture, and epic history – while forwarding your medical career through our unique and robust travel/adventure CME program.

Visit www.medicalstudentmissions.org or click here to learn more...

CME ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the Wilderness Medical Society and Medical Student Missions . The Wilderness Medical Society is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. *If CME costs are applied to professional development.

WILDERNESS AND INTERNATIONAL MEDICINE HAITI (WIMH)

25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits April 17-23, 2016

Haiti Travel & Cultural Adventure CME Program

Activities and meals:

Day 1 - Sunday April 17: Dinner in Cape Haitien at Café.

Day 2 - Monday April 18: Breakfast at Hotel du Roi Christophe, lunch at State University of Haiti, dinner in hotel.

Day 3 - Tuesday April 19: Breakfast in hotel, horse-back or hike to Citadel Henri Christophe, lunch at citadel, supper at hotel.

Day 4 - Wednesday April 20: Breakfast at hotel, lunch at university, evening reception at university.

Day 5 - Thursday April 21: Breakfast at hotel, boat to the island Ilara with picnic lunch on island, and dinner on shore.

Day 6 - Friday April 22: Breakfast at hotel, trip to Cape Libertie with lunch at old Fort and program at hospital, supper at hotel.

Day 7 - Saturday April 23: Breakfast at hotel, flight home.

Scheduled activities may change depending upon weather conditions.

CME Course Content

Plenary, 15 hours CME (FAWM codes included)

Bennett

Emergency Airways 12-017, Soft Tissue Injuries and Contusions/Hemorrhage Control 12-010, Heat Illness and Dehydration 09-009, Improvised Field Wound Management/TCCC 10-001

Forgey

Water Purification Methods 08-008, Vector Control and Barriers 08-002, Overview of Medical Emergencies in the Wilderness 12-010

Van Tilburg

Medical Kits for Exotic Travel, 02-023, Overview of Disaster and Humanitarian Assistance 11-001, Safety and Security While Traveling 02-014

Faculty

Travel Medicine 02-017, Travel dermatology 02-033, Hemorrhagic fevers 02-049, Traveler's Diarrhea 02-009, Antibiotic Selection and Therapy 12-004

Evening, 5 hours CME

Overview of Primitive Medicine 10-003 (Vermeyen), Cultural Awareness for Volunteers 11-025 (Vermeyen), Incorporating Travel Medicine into a Medical Practice 02-030 (Forgey), Law and Ethics in Wilderness Medicine 12-052 (Van Tilburg), Overview of Search and Rescue 06-001 (Van Tilburg)

Workshops, 6 hours CME (each workshop 2 hours)

Day 3: Citadel tour: Cultural Considerations in Travel Medicine (Vilna) 02-028, Hemorrhage Control 12-017/12-046 (Bennett)

Day 5: Isle de Mal island tour: Solar Injury 09-005, Survival 05-010/05-013, (Van Tilburg), Surgical Airways 12.001/12-002/12-040 (Bennett)

Day 6: Fort Liberte Hospital Tour: Women's Issues in Traveling 02-012, Special Medical Considerations in Central American Travel 02-037 (Modenstin)

WILDERNESS AND INTERNATIONAL MEDICINE HAITI (WIMH)

25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits April 17-23, 2016

Haiti Travel & Cultural Adventure CME Program

We've got you covered:

Through our proud partnership with Global Rescue, we provide the added assurance of emergency medical, recovery and evacuation insurance coverage for our program participants.

Global Rescue is a fully integrated provider of medical, security, intelligence, and communications services for safe travelling abroad.

Coverage benefits include Field Rescue from the point of illness or injury, Evacuation back to the member's home hospital of choice, 24hr medical advisory services from critical care paramedics and in-house physicians, Specialists at Johns Hopkins Medicine available in real-time, Global network of medical Centers Of Excellence, Paramedics deployed overseas to the member's bedside, Medical evacuation services provided up to $500,000, and the Option to upgrade to include security extraction.

Visit www.GlobalRescue.com/partner/msm for more information.

MSM CME Presenters

Brad L. Bennett, Ph.D., NREMT-P, FAWM, Captain, US Navy (Ret.)

Brad is an applied physiologist with an extensive background in medical education & training, prehospital emergency medicine with experiences as U.S. Navy biomedical researcher, street and wilderness EMT, paramedic, SWAT/tactical medic, and Search & Rescue member. Currently Dr. Bennett serves as Section Editor, Editorial Board, Wilderness and Environmental Medicine, and resides on the York River in Bena, Virginia.

Christopher Van Tilburg, MD

Dr. Van Tilburg is medical director of Providence Occupational and Travel Medicine in Hood River, Oregon, and a staff physician in both Emergency and Mountain Emergency Departments. He has two decades experience in medical relief and mountain rescue. Currently he serves as medical advisor to Hood River Crag Rats mountain rescue team. He has taught travel and wilderness medicine courses in Haiti, Bhutan, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Tanzania, Nepal, Vietnam, and the Alps.

William W. Forgey, M.D., CCHP

William W. Forgey, M.D., CCHP, is a Past President of the Wilderness Medical Society. The author of over 30 published books with his third book being Wilderness Medicine in 1979. Dr. Forgey is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the International Association for Medical Assistance to Travelers (www.iamat.org). He was honored as the Alpha-Omega-Alpha Volunteer Teacher of the Year in 2000 by the Indiana University School of Medicine.

Hotel du Roi Christophe

Modern accommodations with the feel of an old Haitian courtyard

Set in the middle of the hustle and bustle of the ancient city of Cape Haitien (in colonial French days called Cape François), our hotel has spacious and tranquil gardens, plenty of trees for shade and areas for dining, lounging and relaxing after busy days enjoying the diverse and historic local areas where our CME activities will be held.

Indoors and outdoors are seamlessly interwoven as you enjoy being served by professional staff fluent in the language of hospitality—not to mention in Creole, French, and English. Hotel Roi Christophe is a gem.